Welcome to Star City News, I'm Julia.

Today's news is about new traffic lights in Star City. These special lights are for colorblind people. These lights use shapes, not just colors. The red light is a square, the yellow light is a diamond, and the green light is a circle. These shapes can help colorblind people know what to do, even if they can't see the colors. The square means "stop," and the circle means "go." This way, everyone can be safe on the road. Believe it or not, this idea is from Enid, a smart student in Star Senior High School. Good job, Enid!

That's all for today's news. Do you have any ideas to make Star City better?
