I will never forget the day at the park. It was a sunny Friday. The day was just another day in my life. After school, when I was walking home, I stopped to look at a shoe store. I looked inside and felt sorry for myself. I really wanted to have a pair of shoes for my birthday. I knew my mother would buy me new shoes if she could. But I also knew that she had little money. I kept on walking and soon came to the park. There I saw a girl in the wheelchair. The girl moved the wheels with her hands because she had no feet. I looked down at my own feet. I knew it was much better to be without shoes than without feet. I felt sorry for what I thought about a few minutes ago. I went home happily without feeling like buying a new pair of shoes anymore.
